WHAT TO EXPECT ON THE DAY OF YOUR VISIT

- On your arrival at the Create Centre, a member of staff will greet you in reception and escort you upstairs to the 4th floor.
- Children will be briefed about their visit and any specific rules that apply while in the building.
- Children will be split up into small groups (usually 3-4) and allocated to one of our Volunteers who will guide them through various safety themed activities around the Centre.
- Teachers/parents will remain behind to help answer emergency phone calls made by the children. If sufficient adults are present, a volunteer will be able to take teachers/parents on a tour of the Centre.
- At the end of the tour children will have a chance to share what they have learnt.
- All children will go home with an activity book full of supporting information and resources.
- Teachers will be sent details of additional follow up resources for use after the visit.
