VISIT INFORMATION AND TERMS & CONDITIONS

Please read the following information about your visit to Lifeskills and retain for your records.

COST AND INVOICING

All visits to the Centre as part of the Independent Living programme are free of charge. We fundraise to cover the cost of this programme.

SESSION TIMES

Sessions run from Mon-Friday 12pm – 1pm and 3pm – 4pm.

There may be additional slots available outside of these times, potentially for longer than an hour. Please check the online calendar for details.

TRANSPORT

It is your responsibility to book and pay for transport arrangements.

If using a car or minibus, there is parking next to the Centre, but you will require a visitor pass from reception. Various busses stop nearby at Hotwells. The M2 park and ride stops right outside the Centre.

CANCELLATIONS

If you need to cancel your visit, please contact the Lifeskills office as soon as possible as other groups may be waiting to book.

SUPPORTING ADULTS

For every group using the Centre there needs to be a supporting adult who has completed the training. If you are planning on bringing several students and splitting into smaller groups, there needs to be a trained supporting adult with each group.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS/INFORMATION

Blank copies of lesson plans and outcomes sheets are available in the resource room along with other items that may support your visit.

The resource room also contains a selection of information and resources from other organisations, such as GWR and Wales and West Utilities, that may be of interest.

Risk assessments are available on our website at www.lifeskills-bristol.org.uk/programmes
